

Catch of the Day

Swanson and Trullinger

Verse One

G C G
When Grandpa go'd a fishin', He's show'd off his fishes,

D
Braggin' bout his catch of the day.

G C G
With a twinkle in his eye, "they're nice," he would say,

G D G
"Boy, you should a' seen the one that got away."

Chorus

G
"You should a' seen the one that got away."

D
"You should a' seen the one that got away."

G
"I caught keepers, I caught cuties;"

C G
"I caught trophies, I caught beauties."

D G
"But you should a' seen the one that got away."

Verse Two

G C G
Well I must be Grandpa's boy, I showed off my fitches,

D
Now they are of the blonde and brunette kind.

G C G
To my buddies at the bar, "they're nice" I would say,

D G
"Boys, you should a' seen the one that got away."

Verse Three

G C G
Now I have met a good girl, the tables have turned round.

G D
Miss, you got me hook line and sinker.

G C G
If you decide I'm a keeper, no more player -- I'm a stayer;

^G
I'll be the man who never goes away.

Verse Four

^G ^C ^G
And many years from now, our boy's boy will go fishing,

^G ^D
He will marvel at my catch of the day.

^G ^C ^G
With a twinkle in my eye, "they're nice," I will say,

^G ^D ^G
"Good ol' boy, you should a' seen the fish that got away."

Chorus

^G
"You should a' seen the one that got away."

^D
"You should a' seen the one that got away."

^G
"I caught keepers, and some cuties,"

^C ^G
"I caught trophies, and some beauties."

^D ^G
"But you should a' seen the one that got away."

Bridge

^{D7} ^C ^G
"And there's one more thing boy--there's more to life than fishing,"

^{D7} ^C ^G
"And there's one more thing boy--there's more to love than kissing."

^{D7} ^C ^G
"And there's one more thing boy--it don't you be a missing."

^G ^C ^G
Me and ma caught each other, together we will stay,

^{D7} ^G
She'll always be my catch of the day.

^G ^C ^G
Ma and me caught each other, together will we stay,

^G ^{D7} ^G
She'll always be my catch of the day.
